DINEEN ALLOWS BUT FEW HITS.

Errors Rob Him of a Shut-Out-Bunching of Two-Base Hits by Visitors Bring in Winning Runs.

Neither at home nor abroad have the Browns been able to cope successfully with the Boston Americans, and a balance struck on the season's series which closed yester day shows a big St. Louis deficit. With Bill Dinsen in the box the Plymouth Rocks yesterday took the measure of the Browns once more by some brisk clouting of Jack Powell's slants. Boston lost the first game of the series to Charley Shields, the youngest pitcher on the St. Louis team, but the manner in which they bumped Frank Donahue and Powell-McAleer's two star slabmen-certainly proves that they are not out of the race for the pennant, although they are generally picked to finish about third.

Five two-base hits into the crowd that surrounded the field was the ammunition with which the Bostonians assailed Powell, and every one of the hits counted. It was a clean victory, for every run was earned. On the other hand the Browns could not connect with Dineen's curves. The big redinect with Dineen's curves. The bus fellow not only had speed and curves, but he had splendid control that enabled 'him to lay the ball over the plate whenever he desired. With proper support Dineen would have pitched a shut-out game, but a pair of Boston errors in one inning enabled the Browns to tle the score for a short time. The score was 6 to 4.

BIG CROWD AT THE GAME. Another big Sunday crowd turned out to see the Browns fortify themselves for the hard week that is before them, but even with their good record at home, in which they won eleven games out of fourteen, the team departed last night in third place once more, the Boston team swapping positions with them. The crowd cut but little figure in the game, for all but one of the long drives would have gone safe anyway. The visitors fielded raggedly at times, but they stoned for it by good hitting. The Browns put up an errorriess game, but could not hit, another proof that without stick work good fielding only keeps down the score.

The visitors played ball all the way through. They were off to a good start, scoring a run in the first inning. Dougherty opened with a hit into the crowd in left hit to right. Freeman sacrificed, but Powell retired Gleason on strikes and Lachance expired on a tap to Wallace. "Hobe" Ferris branched out as a slugger yesterday and was directly responsible for two Boston runs. He was the whole thing in the second, when he tied a four-base tag to the ball and dropped it in the bleachfield. He advanced to third on Stahl's bunt and strolled home when Parent poked a ers. After that Powell gained better con-trol, and for three innings it looked as if he BROWNS TIE THE SCORE. In the fourth inning came the mix-up, out of which the Browns extracted a pair of runs and a tie score. Anderson drew the only pass issued by Dineen furing the game. Lachance surrendered his membership in the Giue Trust when he fumbled Walkace's roller. McCormick bunted safely, but Wallace tried to crowd Anderson off third on Gleason's futile throw to first. Lechance passed the ball to Ferris, who followed it Walface down the line and touched him out near third. McCormick rook second on Friel took the sky route to Freeman, and Anderson registered at the plate. McCor-mick made haste for third, and came all the way around, when Ferris relayed the ball over Gleason's head. That inning saw the start and finish of the Browns. From that time until the ninth the McAleerites falled to get a man to first. In the ninth, after two funerals, Gleason's fumble gave Hemphili a life, but Heldrick forced him

The Bostonians used the sixth and seventh innings to complete their slaughter of Powell and they did it—double-barreled guns in both rounds. When they began to have a specific control of the sixth and seventh innings to complete their slaughter of Batteries Shafstall and Hansford; Parvin and Roth. Powell and they did it—double-barreled guns in both rounds. When they began to hit it was plainly all off with Powell. Freeman tore off a single for a sixth-inning inaugural. Gleason attempted to sacrifice, but popped a fly to Powell, and Lachance was retired on an easy tap to the pitcher. The slugger. Ferris, refused to be put away and turned loose a hit over Burkett's head into the crowd. Freeman counted, and when Criger cleared the ropes in right field with a swift drive, Parent reaped the reward of his swatistic effort, Dineen struck out.

ANOTHER PAIR OF DOUBLES. ANOTHER PAIR OF DOUBLES.

ANOTHER PAIR OF DOUBLES.

Powell didn't want any more of Dougherty's game, so the curly-headed youth was passed in the seventh. He was forced by Stahl, but Parent lifted the ball over the ropes in left, scoring Stahl. Freeman swung at two wide curves, but on his third attempt, drove a screaming liner to right. The hit was so fast that Hemphill had no chance to reach it, and once more he had to go under the ropes to recover the ball, Parent scoring. Freeman was left when Gleason fouled to Anderson, and Lachance expired on a high rap to Burkett.

BARRY'S MASTERLY PITCHING. St. Charles Browns Got But One Hit Of Him and Reporters Won.

Off Him and Reporters Won.

Barry's excellent pitching and his errorless support gave the St. Louis Reporters another victory over the St. Charles Browns at St. Charles yesterday afternoon. The St.
Louis boy who has been twirling this season for Joe Quinn's Des Molnes team of the Western League, was a puzzle to the Browns, and a single by Schroeder was the lone St Charles hit of the game. With the sharp fielding of the Reporters the result was a foregone conclusion. In the fourth inning Burg scored the first and only run for St. Charles on an out at first base.

Helninger handled Barry's hot shot well and his throwing was a feature, but one man stealing on him. The infield work of the Reporters was gilt edged, Jimmy Fenton and Fisher dividing the honors. The former knocked down several drives that looked good for hits. Burgher played a star game both in the field ard at bat. The Browns performed brilliantly behind Cy Young II, but the scribes touched the latter for eleven hits and were never in danger. The score:

In the second game of the series between the Alton Elues and the St. Louis Diels at Sportsman's Park, Alton, vesterday, the Alton boys turned the tables on Cahili's men and evened up for their defeat of three weeks ago by bunching hits on Terry for four runs, while the Diels found Eddie Herra hard proposition, and, aside from the first inning, fatied to score.

The game was played before a crowd of 1.700 persons, The rivairy between the clubs is strong, and delegations from other suburban towns and St. Louis attended. At the start it looked like the Diels' game, for they scored two runs in the first inning, but after that Herr was almost invincible, and the Diels were handed nething but ciphers for the remainder of the game. Terry allowed but eight hits, but the Blues bunched some of these in the third inning for a total of four runs. Aside from the one bad inning. Terry pitched a splendid game. Herr was in great form. He struck out seven mee, and, though the Diels hit the bail, it was generally into somebody's glove, the Alton outfielders gathering eleven files.

Charley Schlemm put up a fast game at third for the Blues, and Mike Woodlock was some "punkins" at short. Hiob did the best hitting for the Blues and "Tootse" Hofman for the Diels. Captain Ricks of the Diels pulled off the star fielding play when he ran over from second base and far out from the foul line for a catch of Clifford's fly in the sixth inning. The Blues and Diels will meet in the deciding game in a week or two for the semiprofessional champion ship of St. Louis and vicinity.

CARMODY PROMISES NEW RACE TRACK

Announces That St. Louis Capital Will Establish $200,000 Plant Near Heart of City.

New York, Sept. 7 .- St. Louis is to have new race track within seven or eight miles of the heart of the city, which will be backed by St. Louis capital. This ennouncement was made to-night by yesterday for the first time in nearly half a century-forty-seven years, to be exact, and s stopping at the Holland House. Mr. Carmody said that he has three sites nder consideration, but has not decided upon the one to be chosen for the new race

I cannot at this time give you the location, but you can say that it will certainly be within seven or eight miles from the center of St. Louis, and will be a first-class race course in every respect."

KINLOCH PARK FINANCES.

"The trouble with Kinloch was that it was altogether too far from the city proper, although the senson which closed a week ago was a profitable one. It is true our profits were not large, but when you consider that the meeting at the same track the season previous netted a loss of $2,500, the $7,900 profits which we earned for the fifteen days ending August 20 was not bad. "Our gross recelpts were $8,000 for the meeting. We disbursed $5,000 in all, $20,000 of which was given in purses. Our recelpts were principally from the bookmakers, who in all contributed $2,000; $16,000 came from paid admissions. $6,000 from the Western Union Telegraph Company and $4,000 from programmes and privileges. In addition to these amounts, we received donations from friends of the course, who were anxious that it should not be abandoned, which netted in the neighborhood of $7,000. "But we decided that Kinloch's seventeen miles was too great a distance for 12e public to travel. The water, what little there is there, is not of the best, and it would take a good deal of money—something like $100,000—to put things in good condition. It has been decided that it would be much better to spend twice as much money in building a track which would be more accessible to turf patrons and where they could travel in comfort.

The transportation facilities to Kinloch are very poor, and those who backed the last meeting were really surprised at the outcome. They really believed they were in a losing enterprise. I never thought we would lose money, though, for I have unbounded faith in the sporting fraternity of $1. Louis. What they want is good, crean racing, and they got it at Kinloch."

AS A BETTING PROPOSITION. Salinda Seems to Be the Best Bet on a Difficult Card.

It was suggested that he was in the East in the interest of Drake and Gates, and that the new Gomes would be backed by these capitalists.

It know John Gates pretty well," said Mr. Carmody, "but I have never to my knowledge met Drake. I am not acting for either. The new St. Louis course will be controlled by St. Louis men, and they are not those who are at present engaged in the racing game there.

The Day's Table 1.

The marvelous Mr. Maginn has offered race goers a beautifully difficult card at Delmar to-day. So had are the races to pick that the writer gave an expert handicapper fire selections in each race last night, and laid him even money to each race that he could not pick a winner. Thus the bettor is getting even money against three horses to win in each race, but the fifth. The horses he picked to run for him are:

First Race—Teny Lepping, Hengist. Miss Guido.

ifth. The horses he picked to run for him are:
First Race—Teny Lepping, Hengist, Miss Guido.
Second Race—Miss Eon, Tribes, Hannah Lady.
Third Race—Judge Pettus, Lolter, Albert Vale.
Fourth Race—Fitzbrillar, Two Lick, Happy Chappy.
Fitth Hace—Barred.
Sixth Race—If You Dare, Louis Wagner, Four Leaf Clover.
The writer fairly throws up his hands and admits that he cannot pick a winner in any of the five races in three selections to each race.

of the five races in three selections to each race.

Only in one race has Maginn given one horse a better chance than another. The fifth looks like a two-horse race between Salinda and Digby Bell. Something may break it up, but the race looks that way. Salinda's last race was brilliant, but it may have taken the edge off her, and Bell may win.

All the other races seem open to a degree that should justify the bookmakers in laying 8 to 1 against every horse in a race. If the bettors agree on a horse in these races and back him at a short rise with unanimity of opinion they must be regarded as excessively wise or excessively foolish. Taking the horses that have average riders up the bookmakers should have no trouble at all in getting one played as well as another.

Sport should be excellent, as every horse have chance and except that a very horse

GOSSIP OF THE QUARTERSTRETCH. Captain Bunbury Made a Killing When Kittle Cut a Dash Won.

Fourteen favorites won in the thirty-eight races decided at Delmar last week. Six second choices and four third choices were also ond choices and four third choices were also returned winners. With twenty-four first, second and third choices winning, only four-teen races were left for the outsiders. The longest shot of the week to score was Kittle-Cut-A-Dash, the Gallanry-Bounding Cecil filly, which won Saturday at 29 to 1.

Kittle belongs to Captain B. C. Bunberry, the Texas horseman, who backed the filly heavily and cleaned up nicely when she came home. Kiss Quick scored twice during the week at long odds. This mare has won more races at long odds than any horse trained here this season. The ring invariably takes liberties with Kiss Quick whenever she is in where she looks to have a chance to win, and Elss Quick gets even by galloping home in front. Kiss Quick is by Bobby Beach, one of the speedlest thoroughbreds raised in the State of Missouri. Bobby Beach, one of the speedlest thoroughbreds raised in the State of Missouri. Fizer & Co. still lead the winning owners at the Delmar track. This stable has just passed the $10,000 mark. R. R. Rice stands second in the list with over $8,000 to his credit. Barney Schreiber, who led the winning owners at the Fair Grounds and Kinloch, has won in the neighborhood of $6,000 with his horses at Delmar. Gehelmness has been Schreiber's principal breadwinner at Delmar. Tom Hayes, Arnold & Co., and P. J. Gorman are among the other big Backers of favorites broke about even in their argument with the bookles at Delmar last week. Exactly fourteen first choices were returned winners, and the same number finished unplaced. Of the other ten, nine ran second and one finished third. Place prices were to be had on most of the nine that ran second, which enabled the players to save themselves.

The promising 2-year-old Happy Chappy, by The Hero, performed in Grover Cleveland Baker's colors the last time he started at Delmar. Happy Chappy is a recent addition to the Baker string. Young Baker bought Happy Chappy on the strength of his father's good opinion of the colt. Grover Cleveland Baker is a son of the veteran trainer, Hugh R. Baker. Happy Chappy and Harry Griffith, another speedy youngster developed here this season, were both sired by The Hero. Jim Sellers used to race The Hero. This horse became famous by winning two races in one afternoon at Washington Park.

The Delmar Jockey Club will distribute $16,100 in stakes and purses during the preschi week. The weekly racing programme provides for thirty-seven races, of which fifteen will be for $300 purses, twelve for $400 purses, six for $500 purses and three for $200 purses. This accounts for thirty-six races, and the lihity-seventh is the Meramec Stakes, which has $1,000 added, but will be worth over $2,000. Two-year-olds were asked to meet old horses at Delmar last week for the first time this season, and the result of the contest demonstrated that the juveniles were thoroughly capable of taking care of themselves in older company. This week there is a $300 purse for 2-year-olds and upwards, to be run next Friday. Two-year-olds will be asked to carry mnety-six pounds; others three pounds below the scale. The race was framed up to bring about a contest between the pick of the 2-year-olds in training here and the best of local sprinters. There are eight races on the card this week for 2-year-olds and upward.

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as unreasonable and senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes almost immediately fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors, which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflam-mation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh.
